STAR GAZE

Council election candidate claimed this week that politics were moving into the administration of the Altona Elderly Citizens Welfare Committee. He was present at the meeting of the committee and claims that many of the voters had not been to a meeting in two or three years, and chose to vote as a bloc.

Also on the political front, there could be shock revelations about pollution in Altona if A.L.P. secretary Bob Harrison is elected. He has been moving for the publication of the council's secret pollution probe known as the C. D. Parker Report, which has been kept locked in the town clerk's office.

Mr. Harrison claims the report makes several suggestions which have not been carried out, at a danger to our health.

Newport Railway Station is in the news again. This week a station assistant managed to step back quickly from in front of a train as it pulled out for Altona.

Don't know if it's been discovered yet in Altona, but assistant Town Clerk Sid Fell's wife, Elizabeth, is possessed of a most enjoyable mezzo soprano voice.

Where to vote on Saturday

Voting in next Saturday's Altona Council election is compulsory for all rate payers.

If you are planning to be away on holidays, postal voting forms can be obtained at the Civic Offices. Polling booths will be situated at:

● Brooklyn West Primary School, 430 Blackshaws Road, Altona North.

● Altona East Primary, 7 Collins Avenue, Altona North.

● Seaholme Primary, 44 Millers Road, Seaholme.

● Altona Primary School, 109 Blyth Street, Altona.

● Altona North Tech., 272 Millers Road, Altona North.

● Altona West Kindergarten, 4 Sommers Parade, Altona West.

● Altona West Primary, 1 Belmar Avenue, Altona West.

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Altona ratepayers will decide on Saturday who will fill three vacancies in Altona Council.

Five candidates have nominated — present councillors Ray Richards, Chas. Carlsson and Ian Stewart. They are opposed by A.L.P. branch secretary Bob Harrison and anti-pollutionist Ted Houston.

Poll watchers predict that Cr. Richards and Cr. Carlsson — first and second preferences on the independent ticket — will be returned with a good majority.

Cr. Richards gets the Labor ticket's first preference, followed by Cr. Carlsson then Cr. Stewart.

Cr. Carlsson will also gain votes from his position on top of the alphabetically-listed polling forms.

Town hall authorities expect a heavy donkey vote, from people who vote only to avoid the $2 fine for not registering.

Who then will fill the third seat?

Standing for a third time is a former councillor, Bob Harrison, who tops the Labor ticket.

In the last election, in 1969, he polled 2789 first preference votes.

First time

Cr. Stewart has never faced an election.

He nominated in the 1968 elections which were not held due to the withdrawal of former councillor and mayor, Alex Bond.

Consolidating Cr. Stewart's voting will be the preferences of Cr. Carlsson and Cr. Richards.

The fifth candidate Mr.

Ted Houston, is a dark horse.

He receives the fourth preferences on the independent ticket and Cr. Harrison's first preferences.

The election has been without any campaign.

The independents are standing on their past record in council.

The Labor ticket must of necessity challenge them on this issue and or propose new policy.

A.L.P. secretary (Mr. Harrison) has confirmed this and attacked the independents for their handling of a street lighting plan and the council's handling of an ex-kindergarten staff member two years ago.

Mr. Houston, who has attended a council meeting only once never consulted a council agenda or minutes of a meeting and has also chosen this stance.

But neither group propose any form of publicity, or meetings.

How then in the two remaining days do the candidates hope to inform the voters of their views?

Door knocks

Both teams have conducted random door knocks and are producing how to vote cards for distribution at polling booths. The election then will be one largely of personalities.

Through their council posts the independents are in a strong position.

Mr. Carlsson held the portfolio of social welfare and Health.

He is a Justice of the Peace and the chairman of the Western Group of Honorary Justices.

Mr. Richards held the local organisations portfolio and is the president of the Altona Little Athletics Centre, president of the Third Altona Scouts, a member of the Altona North High School Advisory Committee, the Parish Council of St. Leo's and Altona Hospital Board of Management.

Cr. Stewart is chairman of the Trustees of the Altona Elderly Citizens, a member of the council's finance committee, a crown land bailiff and Commissioner for taking Affidavits.

He held the portfolio of town planning in council. He spends his leisure time commenting motor sport on television and radio.

Mr. Harrison is secretary of Altona Little Athletics Club, treasurer of the Little Athletics Centre, chairman of the A.L.P.'s branch of the Consumer Protection Organisation, and until recently, vice-president of the Elderly Citizens Welfare Committee.

Mr. Houston is a member of the Koorringal Golf Club, chairman of the Altona Pollution Abatement Society and a member of the Storemen and Packers' Union.

A feature of council elections is the large number of informal votes.

At the last election over 1000 votes were registered as informal.

If any one candidate could secure a proportion of these he would have his seat secure.

On the blackboard

A walk held by Altona High School has raised over $1100 for improvements of the school.

Top money raisers for the walk were Angelina Sarros, Benny Gronow and Irene Holloway.

Angelina raised over $100. All three students received prizes of transistor radios.

Three teachers and thirty-six students left last week for a 10-day trip by bus to Central and South Australia, with stops at Adelaide, Cooper Pedy and Alice Springs.

Three teachers accompanying the students on the trip are Mr. G. Urquhart, Mr. D. Marshall and Mrs. K. Didenkowsky.

A group of students from the school went to Tullamarine International Airport last week to welcome Rotary exchange student, Miss Debbie Layton, 15, from Grandview, Washington, USA.

Miss Layton will spend 12 months in Altona and attend Altona High School full time. She will stay with Rotary families in the area.

ALTONA NORTH HIGH

Two of the school's teams in volleyball played off in the semi-final of the Metropolitan Schools' volleyball competition this week. Both were defeated.

They qualified by winning the Western Division championships. One of the school's leading players, Tony Dimitriadis, didn't play.

He has just returned from New Caledonia, where he represented Victoria in volleyball.

Tenders for work leveling and beautifying the area around the science wing and Assembly Hall close on August 31.

Work on the area must be completed within twelve weeks of the contract being signed.

Nearly 100 students spent three days touring Sydney recently. Students from the school left Tullamarine for Sydney, stayed an evening in Sydney and surroundings, then journeyed to Port Kembla steel works, returning to Melbourne by plane.

They were accompanied by five teachers.

The school was pleased recently to receive a visit at their senior assembly from Mr. Wilby Yeo, and two of his officers from PRA, who presented a lecture bearing the school's emblem. In addition to this, the company donated $50.

ALTONA NORTH TECH.

The school held a successful dance recently, with over 500 people and three top bands in attendance.

The principal, Mr. McInnes said he wasn't satisfied with the attendance or the interest shown by teenagers at the school. The bands were: Ida May Mac, Chain and Wild Cherries.

The Wild Cherries didn't play because of the lack of a lead guitarist.

A trip has been planned to the historical settlement at Sovereign Hill, near Ballarat, next term.

Students from 5A at the school went into industry for three days prior to the beginning of the school holidays.

BROOKLYN WEST PRIMARY

Miss Dianna Bull returned to the school this week after a long illness.

Also on the personal side the school will be losing Mrs. Jenny Dugan after the school holidays who will be on confinement leave.

The school committee met this week to discuss the opening of the new library at which the Minister for Education, Mr. Thompson will attend. It will be held on September 17.

ST. LEO'S

Classes will be held at the school for students attending state schools for religious instruction, during the school holidays.

This will be in preparation for their first mass on August 28. The classes will be held between 10 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. each day.

ST. MARY'S

Archbishop Knox visited St. Mary's last week to consecrate the altar and celebrate the 50th anniversary of the first mass held in Altona.

Best and fairest in Football at the school this year was Kevin Lavelle.

Best and Fairest in the basketball were Yvonne Camilleri, Jennifer Abfalten and Jenny Robertson.

A recent walkathon at the school raised $700 for the school. It will be used to paint the corridor, buy a new floor polisher and provide blinds for the sub-primary rooms.

ALTONA NORTH PRIMARY

The principal of Altona North school, Mr. Madern expressed condolences of both the primary and staff and pupils of the district on hearing of the death of the wife of Mr. E. Tonkin (headmaster of Newport West State School).

Mr. Tonkin has lived in the area for two years.

BROOKLYN PRIMARY

Tenders have been called for the renovation of the school. Work will begin on the outside, part of which will be recovered and painted, and the roof, part of which will be repainted.

Security lighting has also been connected at the school.

SEA HOLME PRIMARY

A new member of staff, Mrs. Pjenke will join the school after the holidays. She replaces Miss Hitchcock.

Special migrant classes will be held at the Altona Migrant hostel over the holidays, to help students appreciation of English.

They will be held between 9.30 and 11.30 each day.

A meeting will be held for parents whose children will be travelling on the train of knowledge expedition next year.

A train has been hired to take the children all around Northern Victoria.

A recent spellathon at the school raised $750 and the mothers' club raised $800, both amounts were donated to the school's committee.

The mothers' club donation was from tuckshop proceeds.

A parents night will be organised early in third term for parent-teacher discussions.

Teacher a guest at Junior Council

Cr. Pat Lynch, the chairman, the Mayor, Cr. Doug Grant attended the final meeting for this council year of the Altona Junior Council.

Also present was Mr. G. H. L. Treyvaud, principal of Altona State School, for 15 years and one of those responsible for the establishment of the junior council.

Mr. Treyvaud said that the junior council was a credit to two men, ex-Cr. J. J. Ginifer and town clerk Mr. J. W. Waters, who had been instrumental in its formation.

He thanked Mrs. Lorna Carruthers, the council's junior council co-ordinator for her work throughout the year.

Mr. Treyvaud said that the junior council helped the ratepayers of tomorrow understand the workings of the council.

He pointed out that the community is like one big family, that people should look after property irrespective of whether it is theirs directly or indirectly.

He pointed out to the council that public spirited youth had helped this year with operation beach clean.

Play reading

A play reading, "Ladies in Retirement", will be held by the Altona Drama Group on August 23 at the Drama Hall, 83 Railway Street, Altona.

Members of the public are invited to attend and take part.

Mothers at Altona West kept busy

Nearly $80 worth of books were donated to the Altona West State Schools' library by parents on Education day at the school.

The mothers' club stall on open day at the school successfully raised $258 for the school.

Parents attending saw students perform gymnastics and choir and recorder band recital.

Night time attendance to the open forum was poor.

The schools athletic sports were held last week, and parents came along to cheer the children along. Some children have held fund raising activities to raise money for the new library.

To name a few, Kathleen Barnes, Kerry Holden, Tracey Monkivitch, Sharon McWilliams, Robyn Money, Robyn Gunther, Gary Banks, Ken Wilson and Kim Wilkins.

Children who will be five or older by June next year should be enrolled now for next year at the school.

Next term sponsors will be needed for a spelling contest which will raise money for the school library, which has been the school's major fund raising activity this year.

Tenders are being prepared and will be called in term three.

Teachers for the school next year will be Mr. Dennis Chamberlaine, Mr. Gregory Crosling, Miss Elizabeth Henderson and Miss Sandra Whear.

Historical Society finance down

The treasurer's report at the annual meeting of the Altona Historical Society indicated that the society was $50 less financial this year than at the same time last year.

At the meeting the office bearers were again re-elected.

Others nominated to the executive were Mrs. J. Smith, senior vice-president, and Mrs. M. Hearn, junior vice-president.

Mrs. Hearn is the wife of the late Mr. V. Hearn, who gave the society great drive before his untimely death.

In the general business meeting that followed the recent regional historical society's meeting at Altona was discussed and considered enlightening and useful.

Among the correspondence was a letter from Werribee representing the Altona Apex Club, asking if the club would perform any useful tasks for the society.

The society decided at the meeting that something should be done about Altona's most historic monument, the cenotaph, which is at present in a disgusting condition at Cresser Reserve.

The society suggested that the RSL, Apex and itself could do something to clean it up and move to have it returned to a more prominent place.

The society, as a result of the meeting, has decided to conduct a number of bi-monthly meetings and invite speakers.

The meetings have been instituted with a mind to encouraging a greater public interest in the society.

The society has been hampered this year with a shortage of members but lately a membership drive has secured 10 more, bringing membership to 23.

Copies of the joint society Altona Council booklet, A Short History of Altona have sold out and a revised booklet is being prepared for publication.

The booklet was distributed during the arts festival.

ROTARY YEAR

One of the hardest working service groups in Altona must surely be Rotary.

Speaking at their hand-over dinner recently, the retiring president, industrialist, Mr. H. C. Beecham, ran through a list of the club's activities.

The list runs from car-reers nights to novelty evenings and dinner meetings, all with a view to raising money to serve the community.

At the meeting Mr. Beecham handed over the presidency to Mr. Jim Mann.

BIRTHDAY DANCE FOR LIFE SAVERS

A life saving boat, two motors and safety equipment were presented to the Altona Surf Life Saving Club at their annual dinner dance last week.

The boat and equipment were presented by I.C.I. Yarraville's Safety Officer, Mr. B. Petterman.

It was a dinner dance with many happy memories, as the club was celebrating its 20th anniversary.

Present at the meeting was Mr. Harry Edwards, the first president of the club.

Other guests were councillors Lynch and Burns, Mr. C. Thompson, president of the Altona Working Men's Club and Mr. B. Jones, treasurer of the W.M.C.

Handing over the boat and equipment Mr. Petterman spoke of safety in general, and how it benefited the community.

I.C.I. Yarraville was one example, he said. They had clocked one million accident free hours, which had resulted in the money being available for the club.

Mr. Petterman also pointed out that it was the employees who had selected the Altona Club for the award as they felt that the club benefited the whole community.

The council too had praise for the work done by the life saving club.

Speaking for the Working Men's Club, Mr. Thompson congratulated the club for its 20 years' service, and making their assembly hall available for a life saving demonstration on September 5.

The demonstration will be held between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. A team from the Royal Life Saving Society will demonstrate techniques in resuscitation.

Several films will also be shown dealing with life saving. A silver coin donation will be the entrance fee.

The next general meeting of the club will be held on August 26.

To help the needy

Christmas comes but once a year, but the need of the spastic is a continuing one.

And this year the Christmas cards and gift tags being produced by the Spastic Children's Society are brighter and more professional than ever.

The society needs the support of the public to continue and one way of supporting it is to purchase these delightful cards.

The society has produced a colored brochure showing the full range of cards, gift tags, wrapping paper and notelets.

These can be obtained from the Society at Marathion, 795 Malvern Road, Toorak, or on 20 2401.

Last year $13,819 was raised by the society from the selling of Christmas cards.

Val's Column

Hello, girls.

Miss St. John, our visiting Coty Consultant, apologises to all who were interested in having a chat with her. Illness forced her to bed — and all the staff here wish her health and hope she can come see us again sometime soon. I'll let you know, girls.

Temporary hair loss is quite a frightening experience. Worrying about it certainly doesn't help.

Hair loss is fairly common following severe illness accompanied by high fevers. Other factors which may contribute to temporary loss of hair include administrations of certain medications, general anaesthesia, X-ray therapy of the head and childbirth. There is ordinarily no need to worry about becoming bald from this hair loss, normal growth usually occurs within several months. Gentle massage, mild shampoos and using a soft bristle brush all help.

Continued use of rollers or tight hair styles can cause hair loss. Tension of areas and the same hairs can weaken the scalp and break the hair.

Dandruff need not be embarrassing nowadays. There are very good dandruff and medicated shampoos, hairdressings and scalp lotions to apply.

This time of year, dryness of scalp can be confused with dandruff. Flex cream can feed and bring back to health a dry, itchy scalp.

Girls, if you are having blemish problems at the moment, no doubt your hair is also a worry — too oily. Cyclax have established a medicated shampoo specially for your use to coincide with their medicated face range.

Straightening curly hair is popular these days. Remembering it is a perm in reverse, and as time passes, the new growth will grow curly still, Curl Free is a complete kit with instructions to help you with this job. The straightened hair will need conditioning sensibly afterwards to keep it in tip-top condition.

Thoughts of Christmas girls, gift lines are starting to arrive.

Those wonderful oddment gifts by Amcal are arriving too. It is not too early to start getting those gifts together.

Bye.

The work will involve the laying of more than 17,000 feet of pipes of varying sizes to serve 424 houses and 30 vacant allotments in an area bounded by Wren Street, Grieve Highway, the Esplanade, Wilga Street Myrtle Grove and Maidstone Street, including Ransom Reserve.

The work is scheduled for completion late next year.

You are being watched

By Gary Smith

You — average shopper — have probably been brushing shoulders with a shop detective today.

Where are they? That's their secret. But every major marketing concern employ several, and for a good reason.

Because many "average" mums are shoplifting hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods every year.

And not only mums, dad and kids are getting into the act.

Like me, many Altonians were probably under the delusion that shoplifting happened far away, in some shop or other in the city, or out the other side.

A woman was detained by shop detectives as I researched this story.

She was a little unlucky. The two female detectives remained in the store only to direct photographs to ensure their authenticity.

Authenticity is a vital point. The ingenuity of shop lifters today almost exceeds imagination.

Nothing is sacred to shop lifters. They'll hide anything anywhere to avoid paying.

Trained

This week I spoke with two quiet unassuming women who look like everyone's mother, Mrs. Eileen Reilly and Mrs. Betty Bradshaw — two women who spend almost their whole day shopping.

Both are married with children. Both took on the job 'because of the challenge and excitement. Both were trained as private detectives.

The women are employed by Permewans, who have a branch in Pier Street, Altona.

After an amazing two-hour interview I watched the ladies at work, walking around the shop pushing a trolley and looking at the shelves — and customers.

Both told me no strata of society is free from shoplifting.

Indeed some of the most professional are actresses and apparently wealthy women from the "SE-2" area, who are out for "kicks".

Schools

Some private schools too were breeding grounds for petty thieves, the detectives said.

Shops had banned complete schools they were losing so much stock, they said.

Shoplifting affects everyone. Stock stolen is passed on in cost to the public.

It affects the manager of the shops. In many cases his yearly bonus is lost, because it is absorbed by shoplifting losses.

As to what is stolen, strangely only the brand names change. Almost everyone steals the same as anyone else.

Women steal particularly luxury food items, panty hose and toiletries.

Men seem to steal mainly chocolates.

Young girls and teenagers steal status lines. Pantyhose, cosmetics. All the things mum won't buy until they get older.

The women say that only rarely a teenage boy is caught shop lifting.

Desperate

It seems unlikely that they are better shop lifters.

Not all steal to cheat the shop owner. Some "steal out of sheer, desperate need.

Mrs. Reilly said the procedure for detecting a shop lifter was to walk around the store and watch.

Eventually some action, a movement, a glance will tell her someone is about to secrete something.

The suspect is followed through the checkout and then out into the street, where they are asked to step into the manager's office.

Mrs. Reilly said, "You must be sure the person has stolen something. False arrest is dangerous legally."

"People have been known to pretend to shop lift in order to sue for damages."

The ladies showed some of the ways shop lifters operate.

A hat or a helmet become the shop lifters' tools of trade. Coats with long pockets, the hoods of children's cloaks, all hide thousands of dollars worth of goods which are never rung up in the till.

The life of a shop detective isn't easy.

Both women have been threatened with violence and Mrs. Reilly with suicide threats if she presses charges.

Mrs. Bradshaw recently won a case after she had been allegedly assaulted by a husband and his pregnant wife, who had been detected.

Altona has recently seen a number of shoplifting cases and prosecutions.

There will be more as the quiet women ask, "Excuse me, would you come with me to the manager's office".

A store detective poses for our photographer. She has hidden almost four times the value of her purchases on her person or in the hat. Other items have been crammed inside other products.

Punters will have to wait

The queues will be as long as ever when western suburbs swarm to their local T.A.B. agency to bet on this years major spring races.

Rows of harassed tote workers will have to write out the masses of tickets one by one.

But at more than 30 lucky agencies in other areas of Melbourne, the queues will be shorter and the tote workers will be less harassed.

These agencies will be connected to the T.A.B.'s wonder computer, imfire.

The closest Rimfire agencies to the western suburbs will be at Spencer Street, Kensington, Ascot Vale and Mt. Alexander Road.

All agencies further west will not be converted to the Rimfire system until next year.

A T.A.B. spokesman said this week about 170 T.A.B. agencies still had to be connected to the Rimfire computer.

He said these would be phased over as quickly as possible, but the timetable had to be flexible to allow for assistance in the installation of machines from outside organisations.

In addition, each converted agency had to be fully tested to make sure it was working correctly.

The spokesman said the T.A.B. still hoped to beat its original target, to convert 200 agencies by the end of 1972.

Agencies expected to be converted by the middle of next year include Williamstown, Docklands, Newport, Spotswood, Footscray and Footscray Station.

Argued over Their Dogs

It could hardly be called a dog fight. Yet it was all about dogs.

Mr. Arthur Hayes, a driver, of Flemington, told police he was walking his dog in the park opposite The Strand Hotel, Newport, when a man approached with an alsatian.

He said he asked the man to hold on to the alsatian while he picked up his dog.

Mr. Hayes claimed that in an argument that followed, the man hit him on the head several times with his dog lead.

Police are making inquiries.

betters at Rimfire agencies is random payout.

They can collect their winnings (hopefully) at any Rimfire agency.

It seems that the T.A.B. conversion plan is to move outwards from inner Melbourne.

All agencies in the city area have been converted already.

Some privileged punters on the other side of town can already explain the meaning of the somewhat complicated digits on each Rimfire ticket.

But western suburbs punters will have to wait until next year for this baffling experience... and the undoubted efficiency and speed that the Rimfire system brings to T.A.B. betting.

Victoria's first metal crusher for Sunshine?

Sunshine Council has approved in principle the establishment of Victoria's first metal fragmentiser at the property of Sims Metal, off McDonald Road, Brooklyn.

At the last council meeting, Cr. Ted Coulson said the fragmentiser would help rid the city of one of its main problems — car wrecking yards.

Cr. Coulson successfully moved that council ask local State Members of Parliament to investigate the introduction of legislation to declare motor wrecking a noxious industry.

It is already declared a noxious industry in New South Wales.

Cr. Coulson was among a party of councillors and council officers who inspected a metal fragmentiser in action at the Sims Metal Plant at Mascot, New South Wales.

The fragmentiser breaks down metal of any type. Its basic raw material is motor cars.

Also in the inspection party was the Chief Health Inspector, Mr. N. Goff, who presented a report to the council.

Mr. Goff said: "The discarded motor vehicle has become a prime polluter of the countryside, the wrecker's yard and even suburban streets."

"It is a legacy of waste and a problem for the local government administration which is seemingly without solution."

"Perhaps the fragmentiser is an answer — if it does not in itself become a polluter from noise, dust, smoke or any other pollutant."

Sims Metal at Brooklyn takes burnt out shells of motor vehicles, free of glass, upholstery and engine blocks, and compacts that material into cubes for export as a low grade scrap still containing a large amount of impurities.

The fragmentiser overcomes the need to burn out the shells of cars.

Mr. Goff said Sims Metals plant at Mascot reaches the standards set by the Clean Air Department of the NSW Health Department and would meet the requirements of the Victorian Health Department.

He said there is no dust or liquid pollution from the plant.

Figures for the Mascot plant show that the noise at 400 yards is low pitched.

The nearest housing is twice that distance at Brooklyn.

Mr. Goff said the plant itself is not an eyesore, although the large stacks of car bodies waiting to go into the fragmentiser can be unsightly if not stacked properly.

Mr. Goff said Sims Metal had agreed that the plant normally would not operate on Sundays.

It will not operate at night.

Council has asked Sims Metal to submit detailed plans of the plant.

A survey will be conducted to establish present noise levels in the Brooklyn area and to evaluate the best position to place the fragmentiser.

More Birds for Show

A big increase in the number of canaries, budgerigars and other cage birds to be exhibited at the Royal Melbourne Show is evident from the number of entries this year.

The director of the Royal Show, Mr. H. T. C. Woodfull said this week that this section appeared increasing in popularity each year as a growing section of the public was becoming aware of the varieties within different breeds.

Mr. Woodfull said that cage birds will be judged on the first day of the 1971 Royal Show, Thursday, September 16 and all entries for this class must be in the hands of the Director at the Society's offices, Royal Showgrounds, Epsom Road, Ascot Vale, 3032 by 4.30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 3.

CENTRALS FAIL IN FINAL TERM

Central Altona cracked under pressure in the last quarter and Altona City stormed home to snatch a narrow win in a tense clash at Longshaw's Reserve on Saturday.

The game was a thriller, applying relentless pressure with some fiery incidents and rugged tackling by both sides.

Centrals went to an early lead when Ron Smutney outmanoeuvred his opponent to score two quick goals.

City swept the ball forward to score a major and Centrals immediately replied when Alan Deans was freed in front.

Jim Cargill at full back, supported by Peter Rogash in the pocket, combined well to repel many attacks.

Goals from Jeff Lott and Mick Hatzil gave Centrals a handy lead at quarter time, when the scores were: Centrals 5.2 (32); City 2.2 (14).

Centrals battled hard to force the ball forward in the second quarter as City started to use handball and long kicking to advantage.

Misha Lawrren outpaced his opponent and drop kicked his side's sixth goal.

Murray Sayers was forced to leave the field and confusion on Centrals' back line let in City for two quick goals.

Half-time scores were: Centrals 6.6 (42); City 6.7 (43).

Centrals showed greater determination and started to play in front in the third term.

Mick Hatzil passed to Billy Kennedy for a brilliant goal.

Keith Murrell was dominating the ruck duals and clever play allowed Hatzil to score full points again.

Gilchrist and Seans added further goals and Centrals had opened up a handy lead with good, systematic football.

Centrals 10.9 (69); City 7.11 (53). City attacked continually in the final term,

ALTONA STARS AT SPEEDWAY

By Ray Clarke

Highlight of the opening meeting at the Melbourne Speedway, Brooklyn on Sunday will be the clash between Altona hot-rod stars, Ken Howard and Eddy Byrne.

Both of these drivers are using fast side-valve Fords and are lapping the 1/4 mile track in 29 seconds and less.

Howard is a veteran of Speedway, having driven for more than 15 years with a long list of successes to his credit. The big problem for Byrnes and Howard is the line-up of young Hot Rod drivers from Altona. Col Patterson is nearly 20 and had a formidable run of wins at the close of last season. Robert Davies is the same age as Patterson and is also from Altona. He scooped the pool at one meeting last season when he hunted his Holden to a brilliant treble. There is no question that Altona is now the Hot Rod centre for Melbourne with more than 12 good cars within its boundaries. Other features on the big 20 event programme will be production cars, with many new vehicles coming out from under wraps. Mini modifieds, women's production cars, hot rods, and production cars will make up the racing. The first event is set to roll at 2.00 p.m. after the grand parade.

ALTONA DOWN IN LACROSSE FINAL

Altona's lacrosse A team played Williamstown Fearons at Bond Reserve in the final game this season.

The first half saw Williamstown show their superiority by accumulating seven goals to Altona nil. The final half was even less encouraging, when Altona scored only six in reply to Fearons' 13. Final scores in the match were Williamstown Fearons 20 to Altona six. Goal throwers for Altona were N. Worboyes 1, G. O'Connor 1, T. Ganger 1, B. Hutin 3. Best and fairest votes went to Ray Dickens 3, Ralph Barrow 2, Paul "Tank" Cassidy 1. The special effort was won by R. Barrow. Both junior teams won their games. Anyone interested in playing junior or senior games next season are in Ragas on 398 1793.

Altona star shines in soccer

Altona soccer star Mickey Micevski turned in a brilliant display at Yallourn on Saturday and helped Altona to an easy 3-1 victory.

The 16-year-old from Nth. Altona was at his cheeky best taking on the full back and linkman, created havoc time after time and tore holes in the Yallourn defence. Ian Reid enjoying a service like he has never known took full advantage to score a hat-trick. Reidy's three goals makes him top goal scorer in Division 1. He is certainly enjoying his soccer with Altona. Billy Kerr was at his old tricks of splitting defences with long passes. Lordahus likes these type of passes and had it not been for some rather crude type of tackling the "Werribee Kid" would have had a field day. It was all to his credit he never got upset. Altona's defence is playing with a tone of confidence. Healy and Copley are splendid full backs, very hard to get past and more important very constructive in upfield moves. Many good attacks are started by these two stalwarts. Hynes and Bayliss held a tight grip on the Yallourn forwards. Kean and Herman had comparatively quiet games; still these two get through a power of work making it hard for the opposition to make an opening. Egor in goals for Hans Vanderpole who received four weeks' suspension after last week's game. Sunshine played a very serviceable type game. The "Maroons" played entertaining soccer and the large crowd who turned up to watch, enjoyed every minute. Magical Micevski gave them plenty to talk about as he turned on the razzle-dazzle stuff. Reid with a brilliant header after good work by Micevski and then a hard right foot drive gave Altona a two-goal lead at the interval. In the second half the "Maroons" continued to dominate. Reidy crashed home No. 3. Yallourn notched a goal in the very last minute. The game showed how the Kim's Reserve boys have developed into a formidable side. Pity, poor Springvale who visit Altona next week for the last League game. Springvale must win to stay in Div. 1. The way the local side are playing one wouldn't give much for the Vales' chances. Altona Res. XI drew 1-1 with Yallourn, once again it was the good play of Collins and Elthien that saw Altona through. These two can move up to the first team any tick of the clock, played in their proper position, they would easily hold their own. As forwards in the reserve side they find it hard to score goals. Plenty of work during the summer months on shooting practice will remedy this. Altona's Under-16s are well on they way to setting a Victorian goal scoring record. They have notched up 187 goals this season and the manner in which they are playing many more are going to be scored. Nat Little, the centre-forward, has scored more than 100 what a phenomenal scoring feat. Gilpin, Grampbergen, Roberts, Downs, and Hamil are names we will hear a lot more of, a few of the remainder like Reilly and Spencer are destined for the top, once they strengthen up. The boys have their sights set on the Victorian Cup. Altona pigeon club conducted a race from Ouyen, over a 240-mile course, last weekend. Winner was a bird owned by W. Haigh and son, second G. and H. Ward, third J. McKee and fourth R. Mizzi.

Four games for children in round five

Four games were played in the fifth round of the Louis Noordenne junior primary school soccer league last Sunday morning at Kims Reserve.

The first game, between Altona East and St. Mary's, resulted in an 18 to nil win for Altona East. St. Mary's couldn't keep up the pace of the Altona team. In the second game Brooklyn had a tougher struggle to defeat Seaholme, 4-2. Brooklyn finished better in front of goal. Altona and Brooklyn fought a knock down drag out game in the third game of the day. The game began evenly with Altona putting the pressure on the young Brooklyn team. Brooklyn West's goal keeper saved the day for them and resulted in a four to nil victory against Altona. Altona West and Altona North fought another close tussle. The final scores 4-1 do not indicate the true run of play. The game began evenly. Altona West, like Brooklyn West, were saved by their cool-headed keeper. At the moment the ladder stands with Altona East on top with 10 points, followed by Seaholme 8, Altona West 6, Brooklyn 6, Altona North 2, St. Mary's 2, Altona nil.

Thank you for your help

As we draw close to the end of the winter sport season, the Star would like to thank all those contributors, the club secretaries, the public relations officers and committees for the selfless devotion to duty.

They are the faceless people, who work quietly behind the scenes keeping us and you the public informed of whats happening on the sporting scene. Thank you to Mrs. Eileen Webb, for basketball results, Mr. Alec Dunlop (soccer), Mr. A. Evens (football), Mr. Ray Blythman, (although table tennis shall continue), Mr. Mike Ragas (lacrosse), Mrs. Oliver (golf) and Mr. Lincoln Green (hockey). Mr. Green has stirred people to thinking, who is Lincoln Green? He is in reality Mr. Bruce Forrester, an A grade hockey player for Altona. Bruce used a nom-de-plume out of modesty and rarely mentioned himself in reports. All secretaries of summer sports clubs are asked to contact the Star, to publicise their games. The number is 398 2277.

Geraldine back at her record smashing

Swimming for the Newport junior girls' team, Altona girl Geraldine Murphy, smashed the Australian and Victorian records for the 220-yard girls' under-10 medley in pennant competition.

In just two weeks, young Geraldine has lowered the record from 3 mins. 10.1 secs. to 3 mins. 6 secs. Newport junior girls took out the premiership, while the junior boys finished fourth, but far from disgrace. Once again many personal best times were recorded. Warren May swam 1 min. 33 secs. in the under 10, 100 metres backstroke. Steven Smith a 1 min. 25 secs. for the under 9, 100 metres. freestyle and Ann O'Leary 1 min. 29 secs. for the under 9, 100 metres freestyle. The social committee wishes to remind all members that a pie night will be held at the pool on Tuesday, August 27 at 7.30.

HOCKEY

by LINCOLN GREEN

Playing their final game for the year, Altona A grade hockey team were defeated by Kew 4-1. As the opening whistle blew, Kew went into attack. Good work from Alan Baillie and Max Blakiston relieved pressure and it was the A's turn to attack. Altona had more control of the play, but lacked that little extra in the circle area. It was not until the twenty-minute mark that Kew found Altona's backs out of position to score their opening goal. Altona continued to fight for a win, the forwards continually gaining possession and forcing the attack. Minutes before half-time Kew once again found Altona's backs out of position and registered their second goal. The second half was a do-or-die effort for Altona as they suddenly realised they were possibly playing their last 35 minutes of A Grade hockey for at least another two seasons. But Kew scored another two goals during this final term. Altona, who at no stage gave up, managed to score through Shane Cronin who netted the ball after a good passage of play between Ross Ford and Chris Bruce to give the A's their only goal for the match. Best: Cronin, Baillie, Verity. This game concludes the season for Altona. Let's hope for better things next year. Thanks must be extended to coach Max Blakiston who has had a tough job. Max didn't lose heart with the boys over a pretty poor season.

C GRADE

Altona had a convincing win over Ivanhoe. It was by far the best game put in by the forwards this season. For the first time they were looking and passing and leading for each other. In the first half four Altona goals were scored. As the second half started Altona relaxed but soon came back and scored another three. Ivanhoe's goals were all profit from our backline's mistakes. Their last goal was scored by Bill Holstein, being his first this season. Bad luck it was the wrong goal! A bit of spice was added to the game, to the surprise of some, when a certain injured player lost his cinct!

TENNIS NOTE

All Altona Tennis Club members are asked to note that the annual fees are now due. This year they have been increased by one dollar. The money should be paid to the secretary within a fortnight.
